Exam Paper 2: Writers' Viewpoints and Perspectives – 1 hour 45 mins and 80 marks

Speaking and Listening Presentation: Internally assessed

English Literature

Exam Paper 1: Shakespeare (Macbeth) and the 19th Century Novel (The Strange Case of Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde) – 1 hr and 45 mins and 64 marks

Exam Paper 2: Modern Texts (An Inspector Calls) and poetry (A selection from the AQA Anthology Power and Conflict) – 2 hours and 15 mins and 96 marks

The exams – this is a new specification and so there are no past papers. Students will be given a range of resources in lessons and also to help them study at home.

Language

- Paper 1: Section A Reading. Students will answer four questions ranging from 4 to 20 marks about an unseen fiction text from the 20th or 21st century. They will know in advance the focus for each question. Section B Writing. Students will write their own extended description or narrative. They will have a choice of 2 tasks.
- Paper 2: Section A Reading. Students will answer four questions ranging from 4 to 16 marks about two unseen non fiction texts from the 19th and 20th or 21st century. They will know in advance the focus for each question. Section B Writing. Students will write an extended piece expressing their own point of view on the given topic.

Literature

- Students cannot take copies of the texts into the exam
- Paper 1: Macbeth and Jekyll and Hyde questions will have an extract from the text. They will be required to write in detail about the extract and link it to what happens in the rest of the text. They must refer to incidents/quotations from memory. Their answers should take around 45- 50 minutes each
- Paper 2 Section A: For An Inspector Calls there will be a choice of 2 questions. Students will not have an extract from the text but must be able to refer to incidents/quotations from memory. Their answer should take around 45 mins.
- Paper 2 Section B and C: For poetry students will be given one poem from the anthology they have studied but must link this to a second poem from memory. A second question will ask them to explore 2 poems they haven't seen before.

How could students prepare for their examinations?

- Study guides for An Inspector Calls, Macbeth and Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde are available to purchase for the bargain price of £7 for all 3. Students should take the money to the finance office who will then issue a receipt. They should take their receipt to Mrs Claydon or another English teacher at break or lunchtime and you will be given all 3 study guides.
- Homework is regularly set where students will be asked to complete practice questions, research and read or create revision resources to help them consolidate their understanding
- The English department will issue students with our own revision guides for the language and literature exams. We are also arranging a variety of revision sessions for groups of students
- Year 11 students will sit English and Maths exams in school on Tuesday afternoons during period 5 from 4th October
- Excellent revision resources for all aspects of GCSE English Language and Literature can be found at www.mrbruff.com which links to his dedicated YouTube channel and e-books
- Clear and concise summaries of all key GCSE literature texts can also be found at www.litcharts.com
